Steps to follow:

1) First up for the Direction of the market whether it is High or Low.

2)Look for Case Summary Section

Case:1(A and B)
Reversal Point (RP/F1)
Reversal Point(RP/F3)
Opening	Down↓
Low:L1
Low:L2	UP↑

Step 1:
First thing in the morning check whether the makret price goes below the individual future low or it remains above the individual future low . If it goes below the individual low the trend of the market is in the downward side until or unless the lower 2 does not surpace lower 1.

Step 2: Important Point.
When the market falls below the Indiviudal future low i.e, L1(Lower 1) is less than the individual future low , in such case market falls ultra low and forms lower lows. In such cases only focus on the lower side an do not work on Highs.

Step 3:
Once lower2> lower1 the trend of the market is in the

b) Market will go UP

In this 8 points ALERT! case the market goes up.

Important Point:
Low range will oly be applicable in 2 Cases , namely:

(1) When Mean of Dow future low is GREATER THAN(>) than Dow index High

(2) When the Market Price Moves Below Individual Low. In this Case the market touched individual low
Only during the formation of First candle and did not give closing below Individual Low.
Hence , we will concentrate on higher side only and not consider the alert range.

Special Case: Case 1(C)
Step 1 : When market falls under case:1 then initially it goes up .
BUT
after reaching a High goes Drastically down below the opening and also below the Mean of Dow future low
AND
When does not Crosses Mean of Dow future low then it Hits Back to Dow Index Low

ALERT , SPECIAL CASE

(1) When market price from a higher position drops down to mid of mean of Dow future High and Low and reverts back in the upward direction.

(2) Also Dow index High should be greater (>)than mean of Dow future High , in that case market leaps high and higher and it goes above leaps and bounds

Look for this when marekt goes ABOVE Dow Index high

Mid of mean of Dow Index (High and Low)	24681.92
Difference of Dow index High - Dow Index Low	147.1874
